PORTS FROM WHICH, AND COUNTRIES TO WHICH, EMIGRATION IS LAWFUL.

3. (1) Emigration shall not be lawful except
Ports from which from the ports of Calcutta, Madras, Bombay and Karachi and from such other ports as the Governor General in Council, by notification in the Gazette of India, declares to be ports from which emigration is lawful.

(2) The Local Government may, by notification in the local official Gazette, fix for the purposes of this Act the limits of any port from which emigration is lawful.

5. (1) Where the Governor General in Council has reason to believe that any of the grounds, hereinafter mentioned, for prohibiting emigration to any country to which emigration is lawful, exists, he may, by notification in the Gazette of India, declare that emigration to that country shall cease to be lawful from a day

(2) The Local Government shall at once report the publication of a notification under this section, with the reasons for it, to the Governor General in Council, who shall thereupon publish a notification in the Gazette of India confirming or cancelling the notification published by the Local Government.

7. Where the Governor General in Council is satisfied that the ground on which a notification has been published by him under either of the two last foregoing sections with respect to any country has ceased to exist, he may, by notification in the Gazette of India, declare that emigration to that country shall again be lawful from a day to be specified in the notification.

8. The Local Government may, with the previous sanction of the Governor General in Council, by notification in the local official Gazette, prohibit, from a day specified in the notification, all Natives of

3. In section 4 of the said Act, in the definition of "unsafe", after the word "intended" the following words shall be inserted, namely :—

4. For section 85 of the said Act the following shall be substituted, namely :—

The provisions of this Act for the prevention of the overloading and improper loading of British ships and for the marking of deck and load lines on British Indian and British ships shall, with the exception of sub-sections (2) and (3) of section 35, apply to foreign ships also when in ports of British India, unless such foreign ships, if in ports of the United Kingdom, would be entitled to the benefit of a direction of His Majesty in Council under section 445 of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894 :

Bills introduced in the Council of the Governor General of India for making Laws and Regulations, Reports of Select Committees presented to the Council, and Bills published under Rule 23.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT.

The following Bill was introduced in the Council of the Governor General of India for the purpose of making Laws and Regulations on the 10th July, 1908 :

No. 7 of 1908.

A Bill to amend the Assam Labour and Emigration Act, 1901.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Assam Labour and Emigration Act, 1901 ; It is hereby enacted as follows :—

1. This Act may be called the Assam Labour and Emigration (Amendment) Act, 1908.

2. For section 91 of the Assam Labour and Emigration Act, 1901, the following shall be substituted, namely :—

"91. Notwithstanding anything contained in section 90, the Local Government may, by notification in the local official Gazette, declare that—

(a) in the case of contractors, sub-contractors and recruiters holding licenses granted under Chapter III, any of the requirements of that Chapter, or,

(b) in the case of garden-sardars holding certificates granted under Chapter IV or holding permits granted and countersigned under section 90, any of the requirements of that Chapter or of that section, as the case may be,

may be dispensed with or relaxed on such conditions as may be prescribed in the notification."

3. For section 218 of the said Act the following shall be substituted, namely :—

"218. The proceeds of any fines, fees and rates under this Act which may be credited to the Government shall be expended, in such manner as the Governor General in Council may direct, on paying the salaries and allowances of officers appointed under this Act and their pensionary and leave allowances, on meeting the cost of sending labourers and other persons back to their native districts, and generally on defraying the expenses of carrying out the purposes and objects of this Act and any rules made thereunder, and not otherwise."

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

In view of the proposed withdrawal from the districts of the Surma Valley and from the districts of Kamrup and Goalpara of the chief provisions of the Assam Labour and Emigration Act, 1901 (VI of 1901), relating to labour-districts, it is desired to amend the procedure prescribed by the Act for the recruitment of labourers, so as to dispense with the taking of contracts in the case of emigrants proceeding to these districts. Provision is at the same time proposed to be made for giving a trial to the system of free recruitment by garden-sardars. With these objects clause 2 of the Bill re-enacts section 91 of the Act so as to enable Local Governments by notification to dispense with or relax any of the provisions of Chapters III and IV of the Act, subject to any conditions that may be prescribed in the notification. The clause has been made general in order that the new procedure may be applied hereafter, if considered expedient, to other labour-districts besides those referred to above.

2. Clause 3 of the Bill is intended to permit of the fees and fines realized under the Act being dealt with in the provincial accounts. The amendment of section 218 which it is proposed to make will admit of the deficits of one province being met from the surplus in another province, and, as the expenditure of the receipts is restricted to the purposes specified, it will enable Government to apply any surplus which may accrue after these purposes have been carried out towards the reduction of annual rate or the registration fees.

XXI of 1883. WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Indian Emigration Act, 1883; It is hereby enacted as follows :

Short title. 1908.

Meaning of "India" in Act XXI of 1883.

XXI of 1883. 3. In section 6 of the Indian Emigration Act, 1883, the proviso to clause (2) shall be omitted.
Omission of proviso in section 6 of Act XXI of 1883.

4. After section 6 of the said Act the following section shall be inserted, namely :
Insertion of new section after section 6 of Act XXI of 1883.

" 6A. In case of any doubt or dispute as to Determination of certain whether a person should doubts. be deemed—

(ii) to be a native of India, within the meaning of this Act, the question shall be determined by such person and in such manner as the Governor General in Council may from time to time, by rules made under this Act, direct, and such determination shall be final."

Amendment of section 5. In section 18, sub-section (1), of the said Act :
18 (1) of Act XXI of 1883.

(a) for the words "a Medical Inspector" the words "one or more Medical Inspectors" shall be substituted ;

6. In section 80, sub-section (1), the word "and", where it last occurs in clause (p), shall be omitted, and after the said clause the following shall be inserted, namely :

" (pp) to prescribe the person by whom any doubt or dispute referred to in section 6A shall be determined and the procedure to be followed and the proof to be required in such cases; and "

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

ATTENTION was recently drawn to a case in which certain Portuguese native subjects of Damaun were refused permission to embark from the port of Bombay under engagement to work in Lourenço Marques, to which country emigration is not lawful under section 8 (1) of the Indian Emigration Act, 1883. The refusal was based on the ground that the term "native of India" in the Act included native subjects of foreign settlements. It is considered desirable to remedy the anomalous state of the law under which subjects of a friendly Power may be subjected to vexatious restrictions under the terms of an Act designed for the protection of British Indian subjects. With this object clause 2 of the Bill defines the term "India" so as to exclude from its meaning all foreign settlements in that country. The clause will permit of the embarkation of native subjects of foreign Powers from British Indian ports under circumstances such as those in the case referred to. It will also enable them, notwithstanding anything in section 105 of the Act, to depart by land out of British India for the purpose of entering into an agreement to labour for hire in any country beyond the sea. Clauses 4 and 5 of the Bill are enacted with a view to a provision being made by rule against possible evasions of the Act by British Indians under pretence of being foreign subjects. Clause 3 is a necessary complement of clause 4.

2. It is further proposed to take this opportunity to amend section 18 of the Act so as to enable Local Governments to appoint one or more Medical Inspectors. The existing provision which permits the appointment of only one Inspector has been found defective in that it does not take into account the possibility of the Inspector being unavoidably absent at the time when medical examination of emigrants has to take place. Clause 5 of the Bill effects this object.

(2) When, on such requisition from the pilot, the master refuses to hoist the number of a vessel, or to adopt such other means of making her name known as may be practicable and usual, the pilot may, on arrival at the first place of safe anchorage, anchor the vessel and refuse to proceed on his course until the requisition has been complied with.
